

CALL THINGS THAT ARE NOT AS THOUGH THEY WERE

Someday, for you, God's grace will be amazing for He loved you while you were yet nothing.

Someday you'll trust His sovereignty
when His perfect plan unfolding you see.

Someday He'll be your Refuge in every storm,
for He is your Hiding Place from all alarm.

Someday you'll worship the all consuming Fire,
not as destructive, but as your Purifier.

Someday you'll know the gentle touch of the Shepherd
when without doubt His voice you have heard.

Someday your new heart will have a meek and quiet spirit,
for into your Father's will you will fit.

Someday you will fear God more than man,
and you will lead them to His divine plan.

Someday God's Word will be top priority,
when videos and movies almost cease to be.

Someday the Golden Rule will be a way of life;
you'll let nothing hinder, not even strife.

Someday you'll find that all your security comes from giving God pleasure, which comes with maturity.

"Someday" is recognizing His patient waiting for you;
for when you completely yield, He'll prove to be true.

Someday in humble adoration you will bow
and a tearful commitment you will vow.

Romans 4:17b-21 paraphrased, "Gayle Chandler believes the God who gives life to the dead and calls things that are not as though they were. Against all hope, Gayle in hope believed...so shall your offspring be. Without weakening in her faith, she faced the fact that her efforts were as good as dead. Yet she did not waver through unbelief regarding the promise of God, but was strengthened in her faith and gave glory to God; being fully persuaded that God had power to do what He had promised.

Standing on God's Word,
Gayle Chandler

This article may be copied verbatim with the following credit line:
Gayle Chandler is the publisher for Source of Joy Publishers and the author of Affirming You: Discovering the Biblical Meaning of Your Name. Learn more at www.sourceofjoy.com.