Protector and helper of mankind; secure spirit

Deuteronomy 33:12 Let the beloved of the Lord rest secure in Him, for He shields him all day long, and the one the Lord loves rests between His shoulders.

Job 11:18 You will be secure, because there is hope; you will look about you and take your rest in safety.

Your life is bound securely in the bundle of the living by the Lord your God (I Samuel 25:29). You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day (Psalm 91:5). You will have no fear of bad news; your heart is steadfast, trusting in the Lord (Psalm 112:7). You say with confidence that the Lord is your helper. God's sovereign protection frees you from doubt and harm. Because you find your shelter, assurance, stability, and strength in your personal relationship with the Lord, you are kept in a safe place. Lay with compassionate humility a firm foundation for others, providing them with solid security. As you stay hidden in the shadow of His wings (Psalm 61:4), you direct deliverance for the weak, insecure, unsheltered, and frail. You are to help others to become over-comers, victorious, confident, and secure—regardless of the risk and cost to you.
